

LICHFIELD CHAMBER OF TRADE AND COMMERCE

CONSTITUTION

The name of the association is Lichfield Chamber of Trade and Commerce

OBJECTIVES

The objectives for which the Chamber is established are:-

- for the association of traders, manufacturers, professionals and others, to consider and promote all such plans and schemes as may be calculated to further, improve and secure the trading and commercial interests of the Chamber's area
- to collect, collate and circulate statistical and other information relating to trades, commerce and manufacture, for members as will assist them in their commercial or 'professional' pursuits.
- to advance and promote commercial and technical education,
- to purchase or hire any property which the Chamber may think necessary for the purpose of its business.
- to create and foster a spirit of goodwill, friendship and unity among the traders and industrialists of the City; and by meetings, discussions, lectures, debates, conferences and other functions to provide facilities for social intercourse on a friendly basis between all the members of the Chamber.

VISION

It is our vision that the voices of your businesses are heard in our local community and we have a platform to deliver your views and thoughts to Lichfield City Council, Lichfield District Council and Staffordshire County Council and any other agencies as necessary. The Chamber provides a means by which this can be achieved and as membership numbers grow, the Chamber will become even more effective and influential.

AIMS

- Work with local government and other bodies in order, to bring about change.
- Provide businesses with the opportunity to network and encourage inter-business trading.
- To 'join the dots' between local areas and their commercial representation.
- To promote enterprise, innovation and growth in Lichfield.
- To be the voice of Lichfield businesses and give members the opportunity to express their views.
- Offer business support to members
- By consulting with our members, we believe that we can form an effective group that can engage and influence policies and decisions, through the means of being a strong, responsible and independent voice to our business community.

- Let your businesses voice be heard loud and clear.
